DOUBLING A SLAM CONTRACT

When two good teams meet at the Bridge table they naturally have a great deal of respect for each other's game. Thus, when one good team reaches a Slam contract, their opponents will not arbitrarily double this contract merely because they have some vague hope of setting it. Russo-Jap War Seen in Spring

That war with Japan is regarded as inevitable this coming Spring is indicated by reports reaching London that the Soviet Government is concentrating large supplies of food, munitions and aircraft at Vladivostok, the Russian seaport that is only 700 miles from Tokyo. Commisser of War Clemence Voroshilov is reported to have been utilizing the Trans-Siberian Railroad for many months for the transportation of men and munitions to the port that it is believed would be the first objective of a Japanese attack. Observers say the torch that may fire the magazine may be the coronation of Henry Pu-Yi as emperor of the Japcontrolled state of Manchukuo on March 1. In announcing he would follow the policies of his predecessor, General Sadao Araki, the new Japanese Minister of War, General Senjuro Hayashi is believed to have dispelled the hopes of peace that were born with Araki's resignation.

Home Market Assured.

ASTONISHING GROWTH OF INDUSTRY IN TEN YEARS

An interesting illustration of the manner in which the Home market for motor vehicles has become virtually assured to the British manufacturer is provided in a comparison of import and registration statistics.

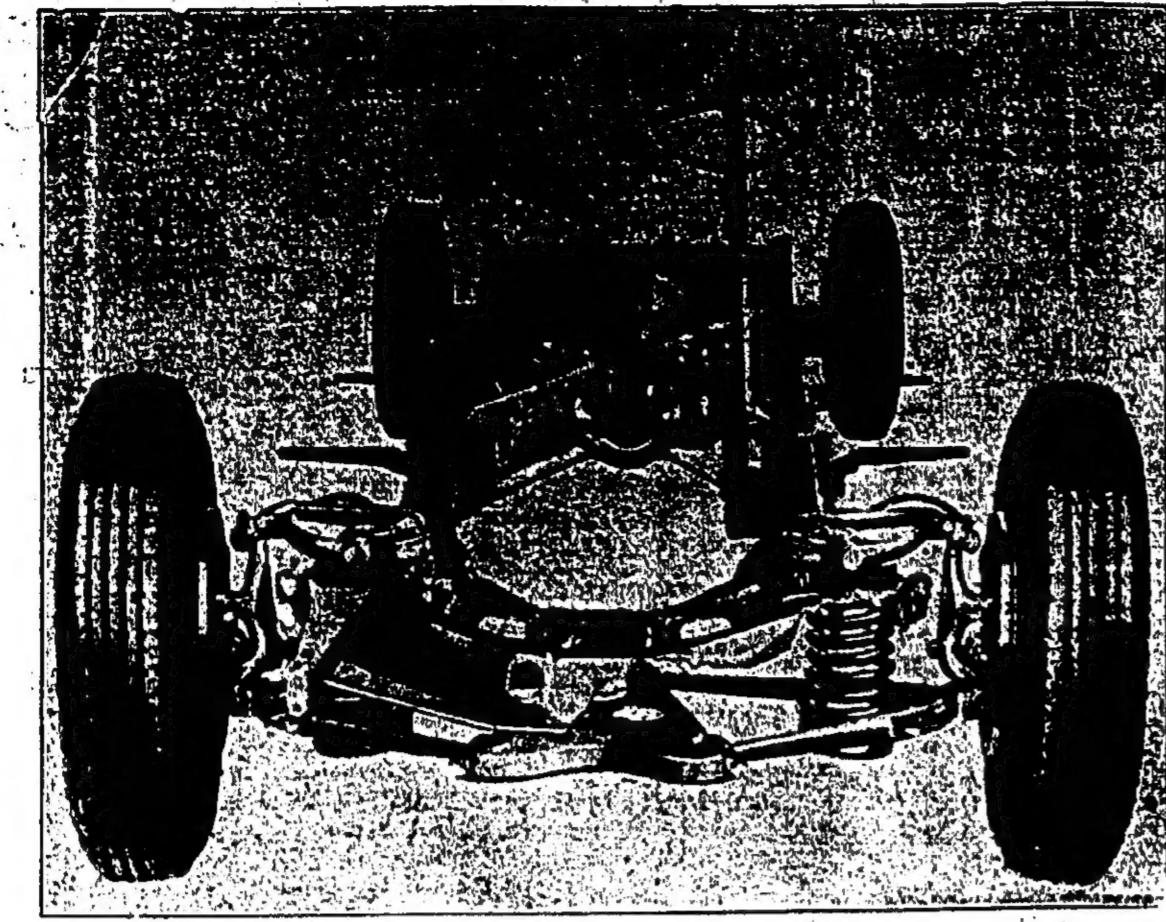

It has been shown that imports have fallen by well over 20,000 units over a period of 10 years. During the same period the number of vehicles in use in the United Kingdom has risen from 680,156 in 1923 to 1,642,575 in 1932.

For the first six months of 1933 registrations of new cars in Great Britain exceeded 100,000, the first occasion that this has happened in the history of the industry. Previous to that the peak had been in 1929, but the record then was 400; units less than the figure for 1933.

As indicating the growth of the industry, the figures of production of British motor vehicles make in-
